Opposing the Mandate

The Crown seeks submissions on the amended deed of mandate – 1,259 (36%) submit in support and 2,221 (63%) in opposition.

Key reasons given for opposing the mandate include: - the representative structure does not allow a hapū-led process and increased hapū representation is undermined by trustee nomination, election, replacement and dispute processes; - the vote of 76.4% in support of the mandate was too low; - recognition of the mandate will undermine the ability of Wai claimants to have their claims heard by the Tribunal; - the lack of a hapū withdrawal mechanism

Feb 2014

Recognising the Mandate

The Minister for Treaty of Waitangi Negotiations and the Minister of Māori Affairs recognise that Tūhoronuku IMA has secured a mandate to represent all Ngāpuhi in Treaty settlement negotiations.

Urgent Waitangi Tribunal
Inquiry into Crown's decision

Fifteen claimants apply for, and are granted, an urgent Waitangi Tribunal inquiry into the Crown's decision to recognise the Tūhoronuku IMA mandate (Wai 2490).

Seventy-two interested parties join the hearing in support of the application and fourteen interested parties join the hearing in opposition to the application.

Nov 2014

Stage 1 Report Released

The Waitangi Tribunal releases its Te Paparahi o Te Raki Stage 1 report,

He Whakaputanga me Te Tiriti/ the Declaration and the Treaty.

The Tribunal's essential conclusion is that "in February 1840 the Rangatira who signed Te Tiriti did not cede their sovereignty".

It makes no conclusions about the sovereignty the Crown exercises today or how the Treaty relationship should operate in a modern context – that's a Stage 2 matter

The Ngāpuhi Investment Fund Limited (trading as Tupu Tonu) was established as a Crown-owned company to build a portfolio of commercial assets that will be offered by the Crown in negotiations with ngā hapū o Ngāpuhi.

Tupu Tonu is a Crown-owned company meaning its owners (shareholders) are Ministers - the Minister of Finance and the Minister for Treaty of Waitangi Negotiations. It is otherwise independent from Government agencies including Te Arawhiti - the Office for Māori Crown Relations the agency responsible for Treaty Settlements. It has an independent Board of Directors (the Board) and Management team. The Board are responsible for all investment decisions.
