THE PARTIES

Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi

1. Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi are those iwi who have mana whenua and exercise tino rangatiratanga and kaitiakitanga in Te Hiku o Te Ika, namely:
 - a. Ngāti Kuri; and
 - b. Te Aupōuri; and
 - c. Ngāi Takoto; and
 - d. Ngāti Kahu; and
 - e. Te Rarawa.
2. The details of the iwi rohe and affiliations are set out in the respective Deeds of Settlement.
3. Although Ngāti Kahu is not a party to this Accord, for the purposes of this document the term Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi shall mean the four iwi of Te Hiku o Te Ika that are parties to the Accord, or, where appropriate, the post settlement governance entities of the four iwi, and Te Hiku o Te Ika shall have a corresponding meaning.
4. Ngāti Kahu may become a party to this Accord at any time by giving written notice to the parties.

The Crown

5. The Crown means the Sovereign in right of New Zealand and includes, where appropriate, the Ministers or their delegates who are signatories to the Accord and Departments of the Crown that sign portfolio agreements with the Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi pursuant to this Accord.

PURPOSE

6. The purpose of the Accord is to provide a means for the Crown and Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi to work together to improve the social wellbeing of the people of Te Hiku o Te Ika. The Accord sets out the structures and relationships that will guide the parties in their collaboration to improve the social circumstances of Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi, hapū and whānau, and the wider community.
7. The parties will work together to realise the Purpose and the Shared Outcomes as set out in Clause 22 below (and as modified or changed by the parties from time to time), and as further defined in applicable portfolio agreements.
8. The Crown recognises that tailored measures may be required from time to time in the rohe of Te Hiku o Te Ika in order to improve the social circumstances of Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi, hapū and whānau, and the wider community. The Crown will take steps to, within available resources, achieve progressively the full realisation of the social, economic and cultural objectives envisaged by the Accord, for the betterment of Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi.
9. The Accord provides for regular meetings of the parties and includes a series of portfolio agreements, which provide for Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi input into Government priority setting, decision-making, and monitoring and evaluation related to Government investment in social development and wellbeing, including in the education, labour, housing, internal affairs, justice, economic development and Māori Affairs sectors.

10. In the event of any agency in this Accord either ceasing to exist or to hold its current portfolio responsibilities then the parties will transfer the obligations and commitments under this Accord to the agency most able to discharge the responsibilities and accept the obligations of the Accord. Ministerial endorsement or where necessary, direction, will be sought to ensure such a transfer.

CONTEXT

11. The Crown has entered into this Social Development and Wellbeing Accord (the Accord) as part of the settlement of the historical Treaty of Waitangi claims of the following iwi:

- Ngāti Kuri
- Te Aupōuri
- Ngāi Takoto
- Te Rarawa

(together with the Crown the parties)

12. The historical context for this Accord stems from the Crown's failure to ensure that Te Hiku o Te Ika iwi were left with sufficient land and resources for their ongoing maintenance and support. This failure was compounded by a lack of economic development and social services which iwi were led to expect from early land transactions with the Crown.
13. In the nineteenth century, Crown purchasing of Te Hiku o Te Ika iwi lands, and the sale of further land following the Native Land Court processes, alienated iwi from a large portion of their traditional lands and resources. By 1865, nearly half of the land in Te Hiku o Te Ika was no longer in iwi ownership. There were few benefits from these land sales because settlement did not occur on most of the lands in Crown ownership. There was little development of infrastructure and few social services.
14. In the twentieth century, the iwi were excluded from effective control of much of their remaining lands for long periods of time when it came under the control and supervision of the Tokerau Maori Land Board and other Crown agencies. Decisions about land use and occupation were made by officials. By 1908, less than 20 percent of the district remained in Māori ownership and today just eight percent of Te Hiku o Te Ika land is in Māori ownership.
15. This land loss limited meaningful participation by iwi in the social and economic development within their rohe. Over time iwi found that even a subsistence lifestyle was not possible for most of their members. Loss of land and autonomy together with economic marginalization had devastating effects on the social, economic, cultural, physical and spiritual wellbeing of the iwi that continue to be felt today.¹ Te Hiku o Te Ika iwi have lacked opportunities for economic and social development and some have endured extreme poverty and poor health.

¹ The census data classifies Te Hiku o Te Ika as an area of social deprivation and the members of Te Hiku o Te Ika iwi are over represented in criminal justice statistics.

16. The Accord now sets out the way in which the parties will improve their relationship based on the Te Tiriti o Waitangi / Treaty of Waitangi and its principles by working together in a new way to design processes and contribute to the social development and wellbeing of the whānau, hapū and iwi of Te Hiku o Te Ika. Each of the iwi who are party to the Accord are also committed to working together collaboratively for the benefit of their people whilst recognising that each iwi retains its own mana motuhake.

SCOPE OF ACCORD

17. The Accord will apply to all those matters as agreed in this document and the attached portfolio agreements, memoranda of understanding or similar agreements between Te Hiku o Te Ika Iwi and Ministers of the Crown, or their delegates and/or Chief Executives of Crown agencies.

SHARED RELATIONSHIP PRINCIPLES

18. The parties have entered into the Accord in good faith based on their respective commitments to each other.
