ATTACHMENT ONE

HISTORICAL ACCOUNT, CROWN ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS, AND CROWN APOLOGY

General

1. The Historical Account, Crown Acknowledgements and Apology are the cornerstone of the Crown's settlement offer. The deed of settlement will contain an agreed Historical Account that outlines the historical relationship between the Crown and Taranaki Iwi.
2. On the basis of the Historical Account, the Crown will acknowledge in the deed of settlement that certain actions or omissions of the Crown were breaches of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles. The Crown will then offer an apology to Taranaki Iwi in the deed of settlement for the acknowledged Crown breaches of Te Tiriti o Waitangi/the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles. The Historical Account, Crown Acknowledgments and Apology will be developed following the signing of a letter of agreement.
3. The Historical Account will be based on the following headings:
 - Early Purchases
 - Conflict and Resistance 1860-1861
 - Resumption of Conflict 1863
 - New Zealand Settlements Act
 - Military Campaigns and Settlement
 - Confiscation
 - Compensation
 - Parihaka
 - West Coast Commissions
 - Late Purchases
 - West Coast Reserves
 - Sim Commission
 - Public Works Acquisitions
 - Natural Resources

Special Acknowledgments

4. Research will be undertaken to ascertain whether statutory pardons could be applicable to any Taranaki Iwi tupuna. Statutory pardons are granted by Parliament rather than the Crown, but may be facilitated by the Crown. In the Treaty settlement context, statutory pardons may be granted in the interests of reconciliation and forgiveness rather than on the basis of innocence or wrongful conviction.

5. The Minister for Treaty of Waitangi Negotiations is authorised to decide whether to facilitate statutory pardons when they are requested by claimants [CAB Min (12) 30/4 refers]. If Taranaki Iwi formally request statutory pardons, Cabinet will have an opportunity to review any proposed pardon when agreement is sought to initial a deed of settlement.
6. Where in the Crown's view the threshold for a statutory pardon is not met, the Crown will explore other mechanisms to acknowledge the treatment of Taranaki Iwi tupuna.

ATTACHMENT TWO

CULTURAL AND COMMERCIAL REDRESS OVER PROPERTIES

1. Following the signing of this letter of agreement and prior to deed of settlement, Taranaki Iwi and the Crown will agree on redress over the properties listed in the remainder of this attachment.
2. Redress options that will be explored include:
 - a. Offer of purchase;
 - b. Vesting;
 - c. Sale and Lease back;
 - d. Deferred Selection;
 - e. Right of First Refusal;
 - f. Statutory Acknowledgment;
 - g. Deed of Recognition; and
 - h. Overlay Classification.
3. Redress over these properties will be subject to consultation and approval by the following agencies:
 - a. Department of Conservation;
 - b. Ministry of Education;
 - c. New Zealand Police; and
 - d. Land Information New Zealand.
4. Redress over any Council owned or administered land will be subject to consultation and approval by:
 - a. Taranaki Regional Council;
 - b. South Taranaki District Council; and
 - c. New Plymouth District Council.

Redress Properties – Potential Cultural and Commercial

5. The deed of settlement is to provide that the Crown must transfer to the Governance Entity on the settlement date those of the properties that the parties agree are to be commercial or cultural redress properties. The offer of these properties will be subject to negotiations following the signing of this letter of agreement.
6. The deed of settlement will include a property agreement which specifies those confirmed and agreed properties to be transferred or vested in Taranaki Iwi as cultural or commercial redress or offered as a deferred selection property.
7. Any property not confirmed for use as cultural redress, commercial redress or potential deferred selection will be subject to a right of first refusal by Taranaki Iwi.

Other Crown Properties

10. Several Crown agencies hold properties not listed in the above tables. Taranaki Iwi seeks to meet with agencies following the signing of this letter of agreement, to discuss their settlement aspirations over properties held by these agencies, which include:
- Housing Corporation New Zealand
 - New Zealand Fire Service
 - Ministry of Education and
 - Land Information New Zealand
 - Historic Places Trust; and
 - Maritime New Zealand.

Ngā Motu/Sugar Loaf Islands to be jointly vested in Taranaki Iwi and Te Ātiawa

11. The Crown agrees to jointly vest land within the Sugar Loaf Islands (Ngā Motu) Marine Protected Area in Taranaki Iwi and Te Ātiawa, subject to:
- a conservation covenant to maintain conservation values and continued public access;
 - Sugar Loaf Islands Marine Protected Area Act 1991 provisions and the Department of Conservation's management regime being retained in full;
 - Taranaki Regional Council and New Plymouth District Council agreement pending outcomes of public consultation;
 - the future plans of Port Taranaki not being prejudiced in any way; and
 - confirmation of land titles to be vested.
12. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, Taranaki Iwi and Te Ātiawa seek to discuss and understand the scope of the future plans of Port Taranaki with the Taranaki Regional Council.

Exclusive Right of First Refusal

13. The Settlement documentation is to provide that:

- a. the governance entity has a right of first refusal (RFR) in relation to a disposal by the Crown of any land held by a Crown agency that the parties agree is to be subject to an RFR if, on the settlement date, it is owned by the Crown; and
- b. the RFR will apply for 172 years from the settlement date.

Shared Right of First Refusal

14. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, the parties:
- a. with Ngāruahine, will explore a RFR in relation to properties or land within the area of overlapping interests between Taranaki Iwi and Ngāruahine; and
 - b. with Te Ātiawa, will explore a RFR in relation to properties or land within the area of overlapping interests between Taranaki Iwi and Te Ātiawa.

Conditions for Commercial and Cultural Redress Properties

15. The vesting of the commercial and cultural redress properties is subject to (where relevant):
- a. further identification and survey of sites;
 - b. confirmation that no prior offer back or other third party right, such as those under the Public Works Act 1981, exists in relation to the site and that any other statutory provisions that must be complied with before the site can be transferred are complied with;
 - c. any rights or encumbrances (such as a tenancy, lease, licence, easement, covenant or other right or interest whether registered or unregistered) in respect of the site to be transferred, either existing at the date the deed of settlement is signed, or which are advised in the disclosure information as requiring to be created;
 - d. the rights or obligations at the Settlement Date of third parties in relation to fixtures, structures or improvements;
 - e. Part 4A of the Conservation Act 1987 and the creation of marginal strips except as expressly provided;
 - f. sections 10 and 11 of the Crown Minerals Act 1991;
 - g. any other specific provisions relating to the cultural redress properties that are included in the letter of agreement and/or deed of settlement; and
 - h. the Crown confirming the nature and extent of overlapping interests to the sites, and that those interests have been addressed to the satisfaction of the Crown.
16. Unless otherwise specified, the Governance Entity will be responsible for the maintenance of the cultural redress properties, including any future pest control (including flora and fauna), fencing, interpretation material, required bio security responses, and removal of refuse if required, and the preparation of reserve management plans under the Reserves Act 1977 (section 41) on the land transferred with a reserve status.
17. Unless otherwise specified, the Governance Entity will also be responsible for any rates that become payable after transfer of the cultural redress properties to the Governance Entity.
18. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, the Crown will prepare disclosure information in relation to each site, and will provide such information to Taranaki Iwi, including any related management costs. If any sites are unavailable for transfer for any of the reasons given in paragraph 15 above, the Crown has no obligation to substitute such sites with other sites.

Statutory Acknowledgements

19. The deed of settlement and the settlement legislation will provide for statutory acknowledgments to be made in relation to sites to be negotiated between Taranaki Iwi and the Crown prior to deed of settlement.
20. Statutory acknowledgements provide for the Crown to acknowledge in the settlement legislation a statement by Taranaki Iwi of their cultural, spiritual, historical and traditional association with a particular area. They further provide for:
 - a. relevant consent authorities, the New Zealand Historic Places Trust and the Environment Court to have regard to the statutory acknowledgments for certain purposes;
 - b. relevant consent authorities to forward to the Governance Entity summaries of resource consent applications for activities within, adjacent to, or impacting directly on, the area in relation to which a statutory acknowledgment has been made; and
 - c. the Governance Entity and any member of Taranaki Iwi to cite to consent authorities, the New Zealand Historic Places Trust and the Environment Court the statutory acknowledgment as evidence of the association of Taranaki Iwi with the area in relation to which the statutory acknowledgement has been made.
21. The statutory acknowledgment provided to the Governance Entity will, in substance, be provided on similar terms to those provided in previous Treaty settlements. In particular, the statutory acknowledgements:
 - a. will not affect the lawful rights or interests of a person who is not a party to the deed of settlement;
 - b. in relation to waterways, will not include:
 - i. a part of the bed of the waterway that is not owned by the Crown; or
 - ii. land that the waters of the waterway do not cover at its fullest flow without overlapping its banks; or
 - iii. an artificial watercourse; or
 - iv. a tributary flowing into the waterway; and
 - c. will not prevent the Crown from providing a statutory acknowledgment to persons other than Taranaki Iwi or the Governance Entity with respect to the same area.

Deeds of Recognition

22. The deed of settlement and the settlement legislation will provide for the Crown and the Governance Entity to enter into a deed of recognition over specified and discrete areas to be negotiated between Taranaki Iwi and the Crown prior to deed of settlement.
23. Deeds of recognition provide for the Governance Entity to be consulted on matters specified in the deed of recognition, and regard had to its views. A deed of recognition provided to Taranaki Iwi will, in substance, be provided on similar terms to those provided in previous Treaty settlements.
24. A deed of recognition with the Governance Entity will not prevent the Crown from entering into a deed of recognition with persons other than Taranaki Iwi or the Governance Entity with respect to the same area.

Overlay classification

25. The Deed of Settlement and settlement legislation will declare the sites agreed to by Taranaki Iwi and the Crown as subject to an overlay classification and will provide the Crown's acknowledgment of Taranaki Iwi's statement of values in relation to the site/s.
26. The overlay classification will require the New Zealand Conservation Authority and relevant conservation boards to have particular regard to the statement of Taranaki Iwi's values and the protection principles agreed by the parties when considering general policy.
27. The New Zealand Conservation Authority will be required, before approving a conservation document in relation to the site, to consult with the Governance Entity and have particular regard to its views as to the effect of the document on Taranaki Iwi's values and the protection principles, and require the Director-General of Conservation to take action in relation to the protection principles.

Potential sale and leaseback properties

28. Sale and leaseback of Ministry of Education sites will be subject to standard Ministry of Education policies regarding sale and leasebacks and operational considerations, if relevant. This includes that:
 - a Sale and leasebacks are for land only and are subject to an agreed registrable ground lease for the property with ownership of the improvements remaining unaffected by the transfer;
 - b Availability of sale and leaseback of Ministry of Education sites is subject to the transfer value (for commercial redress properties) and to the lease (for both commercial redress and deferred selection properties) being agreed 1 month prior to initialling of the deed of settlement.
 - c A leaseback property will cease to be a sale and leaseback property if before the settlement date (in respect of commercial redress properties) or before receipt of an election notice (in respect of deferred selection properties) the Ministry of Education notifies that the site has become surplus to requirements.

ATTACHMENT THREE

OTHER CULTURAL REDRESS

General

1. This offer includes instruments that are designed to recognise the historical, traditional, spiritual and cultural associations of Taranaki Iwi.
2. All items of cultural redress are subject to the following being resolved before a deed of settlement is signed:
 - a. Cabinet approval of the redress;
 - b. the Crown confirming that any overlapping claim issues in relation to any item of cultural redress have been addressed to the satisfaction of the Crown; and
 - c. any other conditions set out below relating to specific items of cultural redress.
3. Unless otherwise specified, the value of the cultural redress is not off-set against the settlement quantum.

Parihaka

4. Taking into account:
 - a. the historical significance of the Crown's actions at Parihaka, and the ongoing legacy that has resulted from these actions;
 - b. the national and regional significance of Parihaka, and the importance of the Parihaka story to the cultural and historical identity of the Taranaki region and the history of New Zealand;
 - c. the importance of providing redress which reflects the significance of Parihaka and acknowledges the extent of the Crown's actions in respect of Parihaka, including raupatu and subsequent land losses; and
 - d. the role of Taranaki Iwi in delivering that redress:
5. The Crown agrees to provide:
 - a. an historical account, including a Crown apology and acknowledgments which outline the grievances and reflects the significance of the Crown's actions in respect of Parihaka; and
 - b. cultural redress to recognise the significance of the grievances at Parihaka and the ongoing legacy as a result of these grievances, including raupatu and subsequent land losses.

Ngā Mounga

6. Taking into account:
 - a. the special whakapapa relationship of Taranaki Iwi to Mounga Taranaki, including the Pouākai and Kaitake ranges (Ngā Mounga);
 - b. the importance of Ngā Mounga to the cultural and historical identity of Taranaki Iwi, the Taranaki region and New Zealand;
 - c. the historical significance of the Crown's actions in respect of Ngā Mounga, and the ongoing legacy that has resulted from these actions; and
 - d. the importance of acknowledging the unique and special whakapapa relationship of Taranaki Iwi to Ngā Mounga.

7. The Crown agrees to provide:
 - a. an historical account, which outlines the grievances in respect of Ngā Mounga;
 - b. cultural redress to recognise the unique and special whakapapa relationship of Taranaki Iwi to Ngā Mounga.

Vesting of sites in Rua Taranaki Ancestral Land Title

8. The Crown offers to establish a mechanism to provide for an inalienable ancestral land title in the name of all descendants of Rua Taranaki known as the Rua Taranaki Title.
9. The Crown offers to vest sites to be determined by Taranaki Iwi in the name of Rua Taranaki rather than in the name of the Governance Entity.
10. The Governance Entity will have responsibility for administering sites vested in the Rua Taranaki Title, and will determine:
 - a. any sites to be vested in the Rua Taranaki Title upon settlement; and
 - b. any sites to be subsequently vested in the Rua Taranaki Title.
11. Any lands transferred under Deed of Settlement to Taranaki Iwi and not vested in a Rua Taranaki Title will be vested in the Governance Entity.
12. Following the signing of a Letter of agreement, the appropriate legislative mechanism will be explored to provide for a Rua Taranaki Title.

Natural Resources Redress

13. Taranaki Iwi, the Crown, and the Taranaki Regional Council have been discussing mechanisms to enhance the involvement of all iwi of Taranaki in natural resource management within the Taranaki region.
14. The Crown has approved two standard arrangements which may be negotiated, including:
 - a. an advisory board, where the Taranaki Regional Council must have regard to the advice of iwi; and
 - b. a joint committee, which gives iwi direct input into the development of regional policy statements and regional plans under the Resource Management Act 1991.
15. The Crown has also approved the negotiation of a non-standard arrangement, should the parties agree. The Taranaki Regional Council has suggested one alternative arrangement, which the parties may consider. This arrangement involves permanent representation on the Taranaki Regional Council's policy and planning committee, and regulatory committee.
16. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, the Crown and Taranaki Iwi will, together with other iwi of Taranaki and the Taranaki Regional Council, negotiate an arrangement to enhance the involvement of iwi in natural resource management within the Taranaki region.
17. Any arrangement must:
 - a. be consistent with Government policy and guidelines in relation to the involvement of iwi in natural resources management through Treaty settlements;
 - b. have support of the Taranaki Regional Council;
 - c. provide an effective role for Taranaki Iwi, and other iwi of Taranaki who choose to participate, in natural resource management in the Taranaki region; and
 - d. be as efficient and fit for purpose as possible.

Redress over Mounga Taranaki

18. The Crown acknowledges that Mounga Taranaki is of significant cultural, spiritual, historical and traditional importance to Taranaki Iwi.
19. Taranaki Iwi and the Crown acknowledge that:
 - a. Mounga Taranaki is also of significant cultural, spiritual, historical and traditional importance to all iwi of Taranaki;
 - b. there will be future negotiations involving all iwi of Taranaki in relation to the governance and management of Egmont National Park, within which Mounga Taranaki is located; and
 - c. those negotiations will occur separately from the individual settlement negotiations with Taranaki Iwi.
20. In addition to any redress developed as part of the negotiations referred to in attachments 2 and 3 above, Taranaki Iwi has requested that site specific redress in relation to Mounga Taranaki and other sites of significance, including rivers and streams within the Egmont National Park be provided for in their settlement.
21. Taranaki Iwi and the Crown agree that they will, as soon as practicable following the signing of this letter of agreement, work together to understand and develop the scope of the site specific redress.
22. Taranaki Iwi and the Crown acknowledge that the development of any site specific redress affecting Mounga Taranaki must involve all iwi of Taranaki and requires Cabinet approval.

Place Name Amendments

23. The Crown will explore, for inclusion in the deed of settlement, the possibility of amending those place names of significance to Taranaki Iwi, in consultation with the New Zealand Geographic Board Ngā Taunaha o Aotearoa.

Relationship Redress

Protocols

24. A protocol is a statement issued by a Minister of the Crown setting out how a particular government agency intends to:
 - a. exercise its functions, powers and duties in relation to specified matters within its control in the iwi group's protocol area; and
 - b. consult and interact with the Taranaki Iwi on a continuing basis and enable that group to have input into its decision-making processes.
25. The Crown will explore for inclusion in the deed of settlement and settlement legislation, individual departmental protocols with Ministers, including:
 - a. the Minister of Conservation;
 - b. the Minister for Arts, Culture and Heritage;
 - c. the Minister of Internal Affairs; and
 - d. the Ministers for Primary Industries.
26. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, the content of the protocols will be drafted and agreed between the parties for inclusion in the deed of settlement. All protocols will be developed to comply with the applicable legislation.

Relationship agreement with the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment

27. Taranaki Iwi, alongside Ngāruahine and Te Ātiawa, has been progressing the development of a relationship agreement with the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment.
28. The Deed of Settlement will provide for the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment to enter into a relationship agreement with the governance entity.

Relationship agreement with the Ministry for the Environment

29. The Crown will explore for inclusion in a Deed of Settlement and Settlement Legislation, an individual relationship agreement with the Ministry for the Environment.
30. Following the signing of this letter of agreement, the content of the relationship agreement will be drafted and agreed between the parties for inclusion in the deed of settlement. The relationship agreement will be developed to comply with the applicable legislation.

Protection and Access to Taranaki Iwi Taonga

31. The Crown agrees to explore with agencies to provide for the care, protection, access to and, where agreed, repatriation of Taranaki Iwi taonga currently held at:
 - a. Te Papa;
 - b. National Archives New Zealand;
 - c. National Library; and
 - d. Pukeariki.
32. Which may be explored through:
 - a. an enhanced protocol with the Department of Internal Affairs; and
